

Love of a Different Kind & why it breaks down...

Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for he who loves his fellowman has fulfilled the law (Romans 13:8)

3 reasons why love “breaks down”...

1. A LACK OF GRACE & TRANSPARENCY.
(ACTS 2:44-47)

2. A LACK OF BURDEN-BEARING.
(GALATIANS 6:1-2)

3. A LACK OF COMMITMENT TO RECONCILIATION.
(MATTHEW 5:21-24)

RECONCILIATION OF RELATIONSHIPS is of GREATER WORTH before God than other gifts.

How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity! It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard, down upon the collar of his robes. It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on Mount Zion. For there the LORD bestows his blessing, even life forevermore. (Psalms 133:1-3)

Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor one another above yourselves. (Romans 12:10)

Love of a Different Kind Discussion Questions

1. Which of the “lacks” described applies most / most relevant to our group or community presently? Why has this happened?

2. How can we reach out to people who have experienced such brokenness in these “lacks” in our group / community? How can we build a strong small group community in our midst?

3. Which is the biblical promise you can hold on to, in order to pray for / claim a transformation of your community from God?

Pray for:

- i. Anything of the past our church needs healing
- ii. Any leader / people we need to pray for & encourage
- iii. 1 or 2 brothers/sisters you feel led to pray for and encourage in the coming days
